This Registration Form is for Middle School Creative Writing course to take place at The Tenney School after the spring semester is complete. A minimum of 3 students must register per session for class to make.

The course will meet from 8 to 10 a.m. daily. We are committed to ensuring that all students have a productive and effective academic program. Poor student attendance or behavior issues will prohibit us from reaching our goals with your student and the rest of the students. Students will be required to adhere to The Tenney School Summer School Policies. Students will be registered on a first come/first served basis. Fees & Refunds: The deposit is non-refundable. The deposit will be returned in the event we do not have capacity for your student. This course requires three students to be scheduled. The remaining tuition will be refunded should you withdraw from the course before May 1st. No refunds will be given for students withdrawing after May 1st. Inclement Weather: In the event of inclement weather, you will be contacted via email if the school is closed. To secure a spot for your student, please return this form, signed by both a parent/guardian and current school official along with a $200 non-refundable deposit. Checks should be made out to "The Tenney School," and can be brought to the school office or mailed to the school address (3500 S. Gessner Rd, Houston, TX 77063). The balance of your tuition will be invoiced on May 1st.

Course Description: Read All About It! (And A Little Writing, Too!) Using Scholastic Storyworks and Scope magazines, students will spend three weeks reading a variety of engaging literary and nonfiction complex texts. They will develop important reading skills, such as, analyzing close reading, inferencing, finding text structures and text features, summarizing, and using text evidence. In addition to reading skills, students will use guided writing activities to write well-structured paragraphs and essays.
